Sally Beaumont reviewed the schedule as requested. Discussion followed as to the structure of the conference and who would be participating. Suggestions and recommendations were made as follows:

- Schedule approved up to 1:00 p.m.
- 1:00 -1:30 p.m. – Fall Prevention - Scott Martin and Rich Phillips
- Include Office of Animal Welfare - Hettie Brown, contact person
- Public Health home safety check with DHSS
- Adult Protective Services
- 40 vendors
- 2 tables for DSAAPD
- 1 table for Public Health
- Best price for items rented is Dover Rent-All
- Publicity needs to be out earlier
- Ticket price should remain at $5.00
- Pizza King is the choice for catering breakfast and lunch
- 1 person at each vendor table receives a free lunch - all other persons manning the table will be $12.00 each
- Vendors will not be provided tablecloths, but 5 extra tablecloths are to be ordered in case they are needed
- Entrance signs should be placed outside to direct people where to enter

Sally Beaumont and Scott Phillips are taking care of logistics and will present a floor plan. Three registration tables and six food tables are recommended.

Christine Steele and Sally Beaumont are taking care of the vendors. A list of all vendors who attended last year was distributed and other vendor possibilities were suggested. More discussion will follow, but if anyone has a recommendation, please contact Sally or Christine.

Amber Woodland advised she has a young college graduate available who will assist with public relations using last year's information. Randy Nelson will also be working with public relations (marketing).

Lisa Celik and Doris Schonbrunner are going to take care of name tags and color coding for the lunch sandwiches.

Lisa Celik and Sally Beaumont are taking care of tote bags.

Sally Beaumont will handle telephone calls.

Susan Webb (Sussex County Council office) will take care of mail-in registrations. Eventbrite will be used again this year for registration. Lisa Celik is contacting senior centers in regard to doing group registrations.

A copy of the 2014 Live Conference: *Live Safe and Secure flyer and tentative schedule are attached. Everyone was asked to study both documents and bring back suggestions or recommendations to the next meeting.
